THE TEACHERS' CLUB

AT the first meeting of the Club, the following officers were elected: Davis J. Baer, President; Frederick Rogers, Vice-President; Dorothea Brouard, Treasurer; and Bernice Rasmussen, Secretary.

Several new members were received into the Club this year, the reception taking the form of a beach party back of the North Shore School. Miss Irene Heacox returned to the system after an absence of two years. The newcomers were: the Misses Margaret Merrick, Margaret Overton, and Catherine Provencher; Grades: the Misses Catherine Hawley and Louise Porter; Junior High: Miss Katherine Ellis, vocal music.

"The Patsy" by Barry Connors was selected for the faculty play. The Club was justly proud of the success of this enterprise and of the sum representing half the net proceeds, which it contributed to the Athletic Association.

The Kellogg Foundation extended its work to Van Buren County for the first time in the fall of 1934, and in addition to the health service to the children, the teachers derived many benefits from the work of the organization. A week-end party at the Pine Lake Camp gave the teachers an opportunity to learn something about the work of the Foundation and to see the camp in operation. A series of six lectures on mental hygiene, conducted by Professor J. B. Morgan, of Northwestern University, were sponsored by the Foundation.

Among the memorable events of the Club during the year, were the Kiwanis dinner; the Thanksgiving banquet, to which the members of the Board of Education were guests; and a Valentine party.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

THE six trustees of the Board of Education, who are J. Edward Burge, President; Frank M. Demme, Vice-President; Carl E. Dilley, Secretary; Stanley Johnston, Curtis L. Beatty, and Dr. Rufus E. Keithly, are all intensely interested in the continuance and necessary development of educational rights of our community with the greatest possible efficiency on a greatly decreased income.

With the careful, thorough planning of Superintendent L. C. Mohr, and the whole-hearted co-operation of the 43 teachers and other employees of the schools, it has been possible to maintain the high standard of the past years and at the same time reduce the cost to our community.

Freshman College classes were started soon after the beginning of the year under Federal financing.

THE TEACHERS' PLAY

THIS year the Teachers' Club decided to go back to their regular routine of putting on a play. Last year a "Fun Night" was substituted for this annual event. "The Patsy", a comedy in three acts, by Barry Connors, was the title of the play chosen by Miss Meyer for this year's production. This was Miss Meyer's first year at directing a play put on by the Teachers' Club. Dorothea Brouard and Frederick Rogers were the assistant directors. The play proved to be one of the best productions put on by the faculty.

Patsy Harrington, "The Patsy", so called by her friends, a girl who is sacrificed to her older sister, is finally rescued by her father, a traveling man, who turns the table and becomes boss in his home. She triumphs as the bride of the man she loves.

Mr. Harrington is the hail-fellow, well-met type—has a hearty laugh and is usually in high spirits—but can talk back with force and directness when annoyed.

Grace Harrington, Patsy's sister, is a girl of twenty-four, selfish, cold, and petulant, excepting when she has a purpose in being pleasant.

Mrs. Harrington, the mother, is of peevish, overbearing type. She considers herself a martyr and is apparently unaware that her unreasonable and petulant behavior is responsible for most of her troubles.

Tony Anderson, Graces' ex-fiance and whom Pat is in love with, is a handsome man of about twenty-five. He conveys the idea of wealth and taste—but, although very pleasant and agreeable in manner he is rather shy and quiet, almost timid.

Billy Caldwell, whom Grace finally marries, carries the air and manner of refinement and wealth. He is very likeable and agreeable, lively, bright, and smiling.

Sylvia is the ex-fiance of Billy, whom Grace dislikes very much.

O'Flaherty is a middle-aged man who proves to be a real friend to Patsy.

"Trip" Busty is a rather tough-looking taxi driver.

OFFICERS

President	William Wepfer
Vice-President	Allen Wenban
Secretary	Frances Wyers
Treasurer	Mary Gibson

LAST September, a body of one-hundred and eight eager and vigorous lads and lassies entered their senior year in high school. Continuing to display vim and enthusiasm, the class had a heated election. A campaign was staged, but to no avail. A nominating committee prepared a ballot, but this body of determined people firmly rejected such a ballot. Then to satisfy the multitude, petitions requiring the signature of twenty-five members, were circulated. The results after voting showed the victors to be President, William Wepfer; Vice-President, Allen Wenban; Secretary, Frances Wyers; Treasurer, Mary Gibson.

Beginning October 19, senior pictures were taken. Soon following this, two benefits were given from which a small net profit was made for Junior and Senior Classes. Then on February 20, 1935, a very successful Junior-Senior benefit was held. The feature of the benefit was a style show given by the boys in both classes. Added to this was a Floradora act and a one-act play called, "Dress Rehearsal."

Hard work and good times made our senior year a successful and an enjoyable one.

CLASS HISTORY

THE Tribe — "Class of 1935" — has had many memories. Upon entering their new Wigwam of Learning (Senior High) the 140 or so papooses suddenly developed into Braves and Maidens. They were Warriors fighting now with their weapons of hands, brains, and soul. Soon a new Chief for our Tribe was needed. The wise men of the Tribe forming a council nominated two worthy representatives of the Tribe. The Braves and Maidens then gathered together to vote. As a result they elected "Wavy Hair" Reeder as Chief. Also in this year our Spokesman of the Tribe was "Glibe-Tongue" Parnham. The competitors from the surrounding tribes were easily set down in rapid succession by our own Brave. Some of the strongest Braves and Maidens from the Tribe were chosen to serve at the older tribes' banquet.

The following year the wise men again gathered with the same result as the previous year, that is, the election of Chief "Wavy Hair" Reeder. In this year oratorical honors of the Tribe went to Brave "Glibe-Tongue" Parnham. This year our Tribe gave the annual Feast of Spring (to the Senior tribe. The Heap Big Volcano "Fujyama".) Also this year was marked by the fact that we had the fastest Brave in Michigan Class B tribes in Ford "Fleet-footed" Hess.

The last year to be spent in the beloved Wigwam by our Tribe was a big one in the hearts of every Brave and Maiden. This year the annual Tribe Book was to be published. A Staff was to be elected by the Tribe and an able Editor-in-Chief was needed. So the meeting place was crowded with 103 Braves and Maidens to elect Princess Mildred "Laughing Eyes" Fishman. After this election, the election of rulers took place. Big Brave "Little Halfback" Wepfer was elected as our Chief. During this final year our football playing Braves defeated the surrounding Tribes in winning the "Heap Big Five Championship". During these three years we had a Tribe musician of supreme talent in our brave Sam "Nimble Fingers" Kurlandsky. Our Tribe also supplied a previous Assistant Editor and the present Editor-in-Chief of the all tribe paper in Princess Gladys "Ever Smiling" Gallagher. Athletic squads were dominated by Braves from the Tribe, namely, Braves "Hit-'em-hard" Haase, "Whip-'em-out" Wenban, and "Fancy-shot" King. Our maidens are not to be forgotten in the line of athletics with little Big Princess "Base-hitter" Gibson. We had one who really was a red-skin in the personage of Brave "Am-I-Blushing" Marrs. One of the big performances of the year was the Tribe play. The leads were taken by Brave "Big-Medicine Man" Kelder and Princess "Little Dolly" Bild. The final activities were the Feast of Spring at which we were guests and the graduation exercises in which we were graduated from this Tribe to launch our careers among strange tribes.

JACK LINDEN

CLASS POEM

"GREAT learning shines before me, like Capella in the sky;
Too, like learning and Capella, my spirit shall not die."
Thus spake a time-worn warrior, who on his death-bed lay.
"Led by our Great Spirit, our Montessori far away,
I go to join my brethren, on the land beyond the west;
I shall go within the hour, when my Father thinks it best.

"Oh, Happy, Happy, Hunting Grounds; Oh, Paradise for me!
Wisdom, world famous, for compatability
Shall be taught by Medician spirits, there, and I shall learn.
Ah, but I must face it bravely! I must gladly take my turn;
I must leave old friends behind me, but we'll meet again some day,
In the land beyond the sunrise. Ah! 'Twill seem like yesterday!"

Just as this chieftain leaving Earth, will find a better home,
So we, my fellow students, though different trail we roam,
Though different paths we wander, in seeking new success,
Will encounter equal hardships, in the search for happiness;
Intellect or manual, whichever be our fate.

We may be laborers or painters, a few of us shall teach,
And, too, we seek for knowledge, be it little be it great,
A famous poet, here and there, a destiny for each;
Sad perhaps, this parting makes us, leaving much behind,
How hard to leave our Alma Mater, where work and play combined
But ever o'er the stony path, a mighty search we lead
Toward our Happy Hunting Grounds, some wealthy, some in need.

Along the narrow, rocky trail a number shall withdraw,
Laodiceans there shall fall, in Indolence's mow;
But ever fights the earnest, the brave courageous soul,
Who strives on to the finish, toward success's goal;
Though handicapped and harrassed, this student ever wins,
For him, when high-school days are done, his schooling just begins.

Yea, Time, The Grand Old Harvester, develops every man,
Brings out his faults and assets, his burdens o'er Life's Span.
So let us seek for learning, as did the aged chief,
That we may not all perish on Ignorance's reef;
And we may look back kindly, and think of our old school,
Which built the base of our success, with pencil, pen and rule.

CECIL ALLERS

CRUMBS

CECIL ALLERS, a suave Frenchman to be,
Will lecture on woman psychology.
WILBUR AULIE, a staunch Republican
Will someday be the party's "man."
Blonde Hair! Blue eyes! Dancing fame!
Its LORAIN BERKINS looking the same.
ELIZABETH BILD'S laughing countenance
Is a mask for common sense.
Music and a courteous manner
Are the stars of MABEL BODFISH'S banner.
ROYAL BOUGHTON, a kind young man
Is tall and lean and tan.
A small shy girl is GRACE BRINKS,
But she isn't so shy when she winks.
A flashy smile or loud crack
Is a sign ED BURGE is back.
Loads of fun are submerged,
In a jolly fellow, FRED BURGE.
CORNELIA BUS can work or play
As occasions demand each day.
GEORGE CALKINS' disposition and red hair
Indicate he hasn't a care.
JAMES CALLAGHAN has been employed by shippers
To design models of old-time clippers.
When teacher's not looking
ORA COMPTON starts the mischief cooking.
He can take a pun if in fun—
WOOD HARLEY weigh a ton?
MAXINE COREY, an athletic girl,
On the middle of her forehead wears a curl.
BERNICE COUTURIER, to friends "Bunny"
Has a laugh that's bright and sunny.
LORIS DILLEY, a stenographer by day,
Is a ballroom dancer we've heard say.
MELBA DOTY who likes mathematics
Is especially quick at quadratics.
To pay five alimonies,
GORDON HAMMOND backs ponies.
HELENE DRAKE aspires to art—
A look at her work shows a good start.
Kind acts and campaigns
Prevent CHARLES DYKSTRA'S financial gains.
JOHN EBY'S hobbies
Keep him away from lobbies.
The ambitious work of FRED FEEDORE
Has made our dimensions number four.
MILDRED FISHMAN'S sparkling personality
Is a circle of congeniality.
ALICE FOSTER can create
Pictures that are first rate.
GLADYS GALLAGHER is modest and demure,
But we'll all be surprised I'm sure.
Originality has been CLAIRE GASSIN'S aim
And it started her on the road to fame.
MARY GIBSON is the one we hope to see
Secretary of the Treasury.

Long winded speeches continue
As Representative GILMAN backs revenue.
ROBERT GORDON would laugh all day
If you had something funny to say.
"Not to be heard, but to be seen"
Is the motto of MILDRED GREEN.
WALTER HAASE'S football is rough,
And all opponents find it tough.
A jolly nature and being tardy
Are the attributes of IMO HARDY.
Although she's neat and trim,
We can't say LOUISE HARRY'S prim.
MABEL HENDERSON'S complexion is worth a million,
Add her smile and the total's a billion.
You can hear a pin drop or a clock tick,
If you're with someone like MARJORIE
HENDRICK.
We're all beginning to wonder why
Girls make WESLEY HENRY turn shy.
A girl and a brilliant record in track,
Make memories of FORD HESS come back.
An easy dance step or an intricate one,
Are all simple fun to CHARLES HEWSON.
ALICE HILL'S literary ability
Is enlivened with versatility.
If being quiet is an art—
Being an artist is FREEMA HODGES part.
WILLIAM HOFFMAN'S intentions are good,
But he can't help being misunderstood.
MARGUERITE HOPE'S naturally blonde hair
In modern times is an attraction rare.
MARY HOUGH doesn't have to cram
Just before a geometry exam.
CORLYN IREY is always eating candy
Or anything sweet that's handy.
CECILE JONES is a good sport
Who meets circumstances of any sort.
GEORGE KELDER, an artist in every way,
Perfects the details of his work each day.
CHARLES KING, a well known athlete,
Makes it hard for others to compete.
If RUTH KNAPP didn't attend a pep meeting
the team was sure to take a beating.
FRANCES KRUEGER, a basketball star,
Has lost very few games thus far.
Will Mr. Scheib miss the fun
When ALBERT KUEBLER'S work is done.
SAM KURLANDSKY'S speaking is a riddle —
The answer is hidden in his fiddle.
If all girls had the secret of her success,
ELEANORE LARSEN would worry us much less.
Both our sides we have to hold,
When JACK LINDEN'S wit starts to unfold.
Dimples and a natural nonchalant way,
Won RICHARD MAGRI a part in the Senior Play.

CRUMBS (Cont'd)

A word or look of any kind
Makes FLOYD MARRS blush, you'll find.
LEOLA MERRILL flutters along,
Even if her government's wrong.
Although he is quiet in school—
Is that always FRED MIELKE'S rule?
GENEVIEVE MILLS' blue eyes give evidence
Of mischief that will last years hence.
ETHEL OFFNER always seems to be serious,
But she has a sense of humor that's curious.
ALBERT OVERHISER, the fellow with dark eyes,
Is a baseball player who will rise.
VINCEY PARIS, sixty inches in height,
Can quickly type anything right.
WILLIAM PARNHAM'S oratory is bound to please,
Although sometimes he's an obnoxious tease.
We hope EDITH PARRISH won't revise
Her light wavy hair or blue eyes.
LOUVIA PECK is remembered by all
As a friendly girl who's rather tall.
EVELYN PETERSON, a girl who's intelligent
Could always understand what teachers meant.
KEITH PIERCE is musically inclined—
He'll soon have an operatic contract signed.
Auburn hair and sparkling eyes of brown
Make MARY PLUMMER a credit to any town.
ALICE PLUMMER has learned a way
To be inconspicuous during the day.
JUANITA PORTER'S voice is soft and sweet
A standard very few girls are able to meet.
IRMA RADSECK is secured
In the knowledge she has procured.
CLINTON RANSOM on his farm is a'goin' ter stay
As long as the dern thing will pay.
EDGAR REEDER'S the one that we adore;
He has personality galore.
RICHARD ROE, a drowsy person we know,
Seems too lazy even to grow.
VIVIAN ROSSELL lives in dreams
At least that's the way it seems.
SONIA SAWIAK has literary ability in profusion
And always likes to write a happy conclusion.
JOHN SCHNAKE spends first hour in the rough
Because there is one teacher none of us can bluff.
Dark hair and dark eyes comprise
FRANKLIN SAWYER who is of medium size.
To most of us, STEPHEN SAWIAK is contrary,
As he spends his time studying in the library.
A tall dark girl is PATRICIA SCOTT
Who's work is done on the dot.

THERESA SEILER is still blushing, I'll bet;
Her giggle is another thing I can't forget.
RICHARD SHANLEY seems lazy
Because the look in his eyes is hazy.
Give MERLE SHIFLET a chance
And he'll come out of his trance.
HAROLD SLENTZ, a traveler would like to be
Who would easily cross every known sea.
A big inheritance makes WILLIAM SMOOT intent
On finding ways in which the money should be spent.
MARIAN SANDERS is quite exact
And only speaks when she knows a fact.
BETTY STEINBACHER'S speech is feigned
Because she is very self-contained.
In MARIAN STIEVE many things combine
To make her character unusually fine.
HENRY SZARKOWSKI can accomplish the unusual feat
Of making feminine hearts skip a beat.
ROBERT TESKE will lead a band someday
And be well known on Broadway.
Like most people who are serious,
HAROLD WEINTRAUB seems very mysterious.
During baseball season ALLEN WENBAN changes diet
To keep Mr. Baer from causing a riot.
We all feel quite secure
Having as president, WILLIAM WEPFER.
THELMA WILLETT is so meek
In public we rarely hear her speak.
The smile of MARGUERITE WHEATON
Cannot at all be beaten.
HELEN WILLIAMS likes to dance
When her studies give her a chance.
FRANCES WYERS' conscientiousness
Has made her a great success.
JANE ZDERSKI, the sophisticated lady appears
And we immediately forget all our fears.
CONCETTA TRAGNA who is short and dark
Is always ready to play some lark.
DONNA WEAVER seems quite shy
But she'll get over it by and by.
The news statement of our latest report
Shows that DOUGLAS WARNER is judge of a court.
ALFONS SANKOFSKI is on the way to fame
Through his good playing in every baseball game.

THE main activities of the Junior Class of '35 have centered around the fund-building for their Junior-Senior night. Joining with the Seniors in three scheduled benefits and a home talent performance, the Juniors enlarged their treasury.

Our Junior Class has been well represented in music, athletics, and oratory, as well as having members on the Critic Staff.

We feel that the Juniors have had a very successful year and wish to extend our best wishes to the future Junior Classes.

THE Sophomore Class has distinguished itself in many fields this year. It has been well represented in both girls' and boys' sports. Also, they have members in the band and orchestra. Members of the class have taken part in the operetta and other school activities.

The song, "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," was made a fact through the efforts of the Sophomore Class, who realizing the need of several families in the city, donated articles to be distributed among them.

PURPLE AND GOLD STAFF

AT the beginning of the year an Annual Staff was considered quite a risk because of the lack of finances. Yet, the Senior class was unanimously in favor of electing a staff first and class officers afterwards. With the aid of several benefits and the Senior play to help swell the treasury, the Purple and Gold of 1935 was made possible. The Staff through hard and efficient labor and through the accurate and willing response of those called upon to gather material made the possibility a fact. Saturdays found the Staff working hard in typing up the dummy on the Annual.

Members of the Student Council assisted with the subscriptions from the Home Rooms.

CRITIC STAFF

THROUGH the splendid co-operation of the "Tribune" the "Critic" was again able to have a page a week on which to publish the school news. Miss Eleanore Dennert continued her work as advisor.

Essential to a good reporter is a "nose for news". This year the staff members have been concentrating their efforts upon increasing the number of news sources.

The "Critic" again entered the nation-wide contest sponsored by the National Scholastic Press Association. The "Critic" was awarded All-American, the highest rating a school paper can receive, for the year '34.

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE organization of the Student Council for the year 1934-35 consisted of representatives from each sponsor group. Officers were elected to conduct the business of the organization.

The chief activities of this body were the sponsoring of school dances once every two weeks. It was the duty of the members to have sufficient teachers and parents present to act as chaperones. The services of the musicians were also solicited by them.

The Student Council took charge of the transportation and expenses of the exchange programs. The entertainment for them was supplied by the Public Speaking and Music Classes, who were directed by Miss Meyer and Miss Ellis.

Two members, Neil Barner and Harley Teal, transferred to other schools. Their places were filled by Theola Grant and Alice Foster. A re-election of officers was made necessary by this change.

THE USHER CLUB

THE Usher Club consists of girls of Senior High. Membership is based on the following requirements: 50% scholarship, 15% school citizenship, 15% personality, 10% service record, and 10% social tendencies. The girls must have the ability to meet strangers in a nice way and be willing to put the Usher Club ahead of social engagements.

Trimness and neatness is the code of the club's dress. The uniforms are black skirts and sweaters with white collars. The gold emblem of U. S. H. letters of the club is worn on the front of the sweater.

The Senior girls who left the Club at the time of the Senior play are Mildred Fishman, Gladys Gallagher, Cecile Jones, Vivian Rossell, Marian Stieve and Frances Wyers. Their places have been filled by six Sophomore girls.

The Junior girls who will resume their positions again next year are Mary Hennis, Olive Horton, Mary Jane Killean, Marie Lauman, Jane Merson, and Shirley Rice.

Reserve ushers were needed to work in absence of regular ushers, or when more ushers were needed. Loris Dilley and Genevieve Mills were the reserves for the Seniors, and Esther Lyman and Evelyn Valentine for the Juniors.

MIXED CHORUS

THE mixed Chorus composed of The Senior High Glee Clubs, under the direction of Miss Katherine Ellis, made their initial appearance in December, when they presented a varied program of musical numbers.

On March 8, a special success was made with the production of "H. M. S. Pinafore"—that rollicking nautical operetta of Gilbert and Sullivan. To climax the year's work, the annual spring concert was presented on May 9.

OPERETTA

MISS ELLIS' first operatic production, "H. M. S. Pinafore," proved to be a great success. Being really a light opera, made it one of the hardest operettas put on by the Mixed Chorus. The dramatics were supervised by Miss Meyer and the dancing and costuming by Miss Patnales.

Marjorie Maulsby and the Pit Orchestra furnished the musical accompaniment.

The setting is on board ship "Pinafore." Many difficulties arise for Captain Corcoran, master of H. M. S. Pinafore, when he attempts to choose a husband for his daughter, Josephine. The maiden has fallen in love with Ralph, a mere fore-mast man, and she rejects all entreaties of the appointed suitor, Sir Joseph Porter K. C. B., First Lord of the Admiralty. Contemplated suicide and elopement are thwarted by Mrs. Cripps who brings, besides her wares for sailors, the knowledge of a secret which results in the elevation of Ralph's position and his romance with Josephine.

THE SENIOR PLAY

AFTER a careful survey of various plays, "Three Cornered Moon", by Gertrude Tonkonogy, was selected for this year's senior play, by Miss Meyer. This was another of Miss Meyer's successes.

From almost any point of view the Rimplegars are moonstruck. Even if you study them you will never hear two words out of them that make sense. In the first act they are considerably well off in the world, and being spared the necessity of working, they take out their lunacy in inventing complicated methods of suicide or in impulsive journeys. But suddenly they find themselves penniless. Mrs. Rimplegar, having sold out the family fortune to a margin broker, puts on her wrapper, does up her hair in a Turkish towel and meanders dizzily around the house. That is why the Rimplegar children all go to work at starvation wages and become a clan with a cause. But idle or industrious, a Rimplegar is always the same. From one day to another he never tampers with logic. Clever and witty dialogue kept the audience in constant laughter.

The scene takes place in the entrance hall and the dining room of the Rimplegar home in Brooklyn in the Spring.

Elizabeth is a girl of about twenty-three, undignified, and bored to death with life.

Mrs. Rimplegar is a dazed, rattle-brained woman whose gestures are uncertain and reactions belated.

Dr. Stevens is about thirty-two and is the only one on the stage who bears a certain maturity of face and bearing.

Douglas is a nice looking boy of twenty-two. For some reason that is never very clear to anybody, he thinks he has dramatic ability and would like to go on the stage. In his ordinary conversation he is not, happily, theatrical, but every once in a while he pulls what he calls a gag.

Kenneth is twenty-five and has more dignity than any of the other Rimplegars. His speech is affected, his accent being either Harvardian or English, whichever is most unpleasant to you.

Ed is a happy-go-lucky College boy of eighteen.

Donald is an awkward person but charming. He has a sensitive immature face and a humorous mouth.

Kitty is a Brooklyn beauty whose decided ampleness has not deterred her from wearing a tight dress.

Jenny, the maid, is a red-cheeked, husky Czechoslovakian girl who can not speak English very well.

FOR the second successive year William Parnham, a senior, took first place in the oratorical contest held February 27 in the High School Auditorium. His oration was entitled "Brother to the Ox". Second place went to Wilbur Aulie with "Social Unrest".

Other Oration were "Four Portals" by Cecil Allers and "Spare Time, a Threatening Menace", by Edgar Reeder.

Mary Brady took first place with her declamation "Ropes". Charlotte Clarke placed second with Daniel O'Connell. Other declamations were "U. S. No. 9653" by Harold Sanford; "Labels" by Joyce Davis; "Abraham Lincoln" by Madelon MacDonald; and "Let Us Have Peace" by Ruth Wenban.

The winners went to the sub-district contest, held in April, to represent South Haven High School.

THE Sophomore Debate Club, "South Haven Forum", under the direction of Miss Kerr, was organized during the third quarter. Any Sophomore interested in debating was eligible to join. The Club had a membership of twenty and met every two weeks. The purpose of this Club was to have debates on topics of interest to the group in order to learn more about debating. Although the Club had a late start in the year, it had made a successful beginning and will be able to accomplish much next year.

class of '34 presented their gift to the school. The gift was an electrical machine to help athletes to keep in condition. Next on the program was a cabaret scene in which four couples danced to the music of "Sir Stubbins" and his Orchestra. Features on "Sir Stubbins" program were, a coronet solo, a saxophone and cornet duet, and a song and solo dance; all by different members of his Orchestra. Tap dances by Mary Celia Meyers, Naomi McNeal, and Virginia Bridges were given between musical numbers.

The curtain closed on the scene of the dancers waltzing to the melodious strains of the Orchestra music.

THE Home Economics groups were organized during the first month of the school year. The enrollment was so large that it was decided to divide it into two groups which would meet alternately each week. In addition to this there was one afternoon group which met Wednesdays.

The club was organized to aid the girls not only in knowing the fundamental facts of home-making but to help them to know how to live better and happier in this school and community. The club, under the direction of Miss Patnales, has enjoyed many parties such as hikes and taffy-pulls. Informal discussions have formed a greater part of the business meetings. The girls were able to enter the annual spring style show this year.

On November 10 the club held its Fourth Annual Rural Show and Contest, in which nineteen rural schools took part. One hundred and sixty students came from these schools bringing with them twelve hundred exhibits.

At the Bangor Apple Show, the club took first place, at the Van Buren County Fair, the club's booth took first place, and the Horticulture judging team took first place with crops judging team taking a second place. The crops team that went to Dowagiac placed third in Southwestern Michigan.

The local chapter officers journeyed to Hartford in February for the purpose of organizing a County F. F. A. At this meeting our local President, Tony Rumiez, was elected president of the Van Buren County F. F. A.

TRACK - 1934

SOUTH HAVEN tracksters opened the season with the annual interclass track meet which the seniors easily won. This meet provided Coach Jillson a means of discovering promising material which he could use to advantage, as last year many lettermen were lost through graduation.

Paw Paw was the first victim of the local squad and South Haven soundly trounced them to the tune of  $61\frac{3}{4}$  to  $42\frac{1}{4}$ . The feature of the meet was the running of Alan Smith of Paw Paw against our own Smith in the dashes. With a machine like form and great speed, this boy won both dashes but not until Don Smith had given him a good race. Walter Pahl, in his first year of running, took first place in the 440.

Niles was the next victim, but here Jillson's squad found stiff competition especially in the distance runs. This was the most thrilling meet of the year, as the score was 49 to 50 in favor of Niles, but South Haven's hopes rested on the relay team. However Coach Jillson was not disappointed, as the relay team won in a hot duel. Up to the time Don Smith took the baton, the teams were even, but when the blond flash grasped the baton the Niles spectators sank in their seats and South Haven fans knew the results. The final scoring was South Haven 54 and Niles 50.

This year South Haven entertained the Big Five Conference. Dowagiac, the favored, won; but not with the ease anticipated. South Haven was second with  $29\frac{1}{4}$  points.

TRACK (Cont'd)

May 19th, Jillson's lads journeyed to Kalamazoo to compete in the Regional meet, with the absence of Don Smith and Herbert Streeter in the dashes and Charles Hewson in the low hurdles. Finishing in a strong third, South Haven qualified the following men for the State meet: Douglas Larsen, shot put; Marshall Corey and Charles Crawford, broad jump; Harold Lundy in the half mile; and Ford Hess in the mile.

Marshall Corey, Charles Crawford, Ford Hess, Douglas Larsen, and Harold Lundy competed in the State meet at East Lansing, May 26. Lundy, running the half mile was beat out of first place by inches in a thrilling race. Marshall Corey and Charles Crawford placed second and third respectively in the broad jump, with leaps of over 19'-6". Ford Hess, running the mile, took first for the remaining points. The team scored sixteen points in all.

As Coach Jillson expresses it "From the standpoint of development this year's team is the best I have ever coached. At the start of the season prospects were none too bright but in spite of some hard luck and injuries the team scored sixteen points in the state meet the second highest total in the Purple and Gold's History."

BASEBALL - 1934

WITH only visions of the Championship team of previous years and their stars, Coach Baer proceeded to build another team to carry on, building it around the nucleus, Captain Harold Lundy and three returning lettermen.

The opening game with Gobles saw the team defeated by the score of 10-5. The game showed up many weaknesses but it also had its strong points as the hitting was well done. Decatur turned the tables and South Haven took one of its worst defeats in three years, the score 16-9. Covert fell at the hands of the Purple and Gold by a large score of 29-10. On the home diamond the Purple and Gold swatters beat the strong Lawton team 8-5. Bangor was defeated 12-2. Things began to look bright and continued by beating Hartford 7-4 in a very exciting game. South Haven wound up the season in a tight game with Bloomingdale losing 2-3. However, Bloomingdale went on to win the County Championship from Decatur which were the only two teams to beat the locals.

We can consider the team a very successful one from all angles as they made a very good record. With a number of lettermen returning we can look forward to a good season of America's most popular game at South Haven.

FOOTBALL

"CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS" is the undisputed title held by the South Haven gridgers of 1935. The material looked none too bright at the start of the season as very few of the boys had any varsity experience.

The good coaching staff, the never die spirit, and fight which has dominated many South Haven athletic teams in the past, regardless of the obstacles proved the undoing of many supposedly stronger rivals. Our old friendly enemy St. Joe still had the jinx on us and the boys failed to push them over.

The opening game found South Haven on the better end of a 6-0 score against Hartford. Although it looked bad for South Haven at first the boys came through in the final period to win. The running attack of Lundy and Wepfer was the feature of this game.

The next game was played at Niles where South Haven, the dark horse, pulled a fast one and secured a safety in the middle of the second quarter and was able to hold Niles scoreless the rest of the game. Niles won't forget that game for a long time.

Buchanan, a class C school, which always affords plenty of competition to all class B schools, was at a loss to stop the plucky local backfield and hard charging line. The score was 12-0 in favor of South Haven.

South Haven was invited as the school to oppose Paw Paw in their annual homecoming. Paw Paw, unaccustomed to being beaten at their own homecomings was surprised when the locals turned on the pressure by splendid offensive work of the line and the consistent plunging of Haase. Some rough spots were found in the play but the team showed a fine spirit and good team work. The score was, South Haven 12, Paw Paw 0.

FOOTBALL (Cont'd)

This year big five conference teams were beginning to worry about Three Rivers as the team to watch. The local boys knew they had a hard game and went in with that idea, not to give up and Three Rivers was beaten 6-0.

Coloma suffered defeat when Haase plunged for successive first downs, finally resulting in two touchdowns. The score was Coloma 13 and South Haven 14. St Joe came here November 3 and after a hard fight showed that the best team won. Although St. Joe can not be considered on top of the heap they come close. This defeat stung the boys hard and helped to get them under fire for the big game with Dowagiac the following Saturday.

The Purple and Gold topped off the season with a glorious defeat of the undefeated Dowagiac team and thus won the Big Five Conference of Southwestern Michigan.

SECOND TEAM FOOTBALL

Taking the bumps and giving all the competition a second team is capable of while getting little honor, this year's second team deserves space for their work. They played the following schools with these results:

South Haven .....	0	St. Joe .....	0
South Haven .....	0	Bangor .....	19
South Haven .....	6	St. Joe .....	0

Prospects for next year are exceptionally good with eleven lettermen returning. Coach Baer says of the team:

"The 1934 football team surprised everyone including themselves by winning the Big Five championship. At the start of the season people wondered what game the team would win. This team demonstrated that, a will to win combined with hard work, will produce results."

BASKETBALL - 1934-35

AT the beginning of the season we hoped to duplicate our football record and win practically every game in which we participated, but the inevitable jinx decreed otherwise. However, we feel that the team has established a worthy record. Losing only two regulars by graduation, we can look forward to a more successful season in 1935-36.

December 7, South Haven defeated Decatur to start the season. Many rough spots showed up but were polished off as the season progressed. Paw Paw handed the Purple and Gold their first defeat of the season. Paw Paw has always offered stiff competition in any sport but especially in basketball. December 28, the annual Alumni game offered plenty of thrills for South Haven. The High School was not able to make up for the extra height and experience of the older members. However a good game was witnessed by all. December 21, the Purple and Gold lost a close game to Dowagiac for their first Conference defeat. The rest of the season's games were played with Three Rivers, Niles, and St. Joe. South Haven lost to St. Joe, the Conference champs, after a hard fight. However, Niles was too strong for the locals and went home on the large end of the 19-26 score. Paw Paw's "Redskins", victors over the Purple and Gold earlier in the season, were scalped by a new improved South Haven quintet. Dowagiac, taking advantage of an early lead, succeeded in staving off a Purple and Gold rally and won their second straight from South Haven. Earlier in the season, South Haven cagers succeeded in beating Three Rivers but in the second tilt, they were not successful and bowed to a stinging 31-13 defeat. St. Joe once more held the locals spellbound with their smooth offense and tight defense and hung up a 30-14 victory, their second over the locals this season.

TENNIS - 1934

THE Tennis team scored victories over the following cities: St. Joe, Dowagiac, Kalamazoo State High, and Benton Harbor.

St. Joe suffered two defeats at the hands of the locals, Kalamazoo State High won one and lost one, Dowagiac tied one and lost one, Benton Harbor lost one.

Those earning letters were Jack Clark, Clement Schulman, Sam Musser, and Arthur Clarke.

Jack Clark deserves special mention because of his play in the regional tournaments at Benton Harbor where he went into the finals and lost to last year's regional winner, 6-0, 5-7, 6-3.

GOLF - 1934

Although a minor sport, this game attracted a number of candidates and spectators. The team lost their first match to Bangor, 4 up.

At Dowagiac they lost by the same score—4 up.

Realizing the handicaps the boys had to put up with, we do not feel bad at the results. A great deal of experience was gathered and the boys had a good time.

Those comprising the team were Robert Teske, Wendell Ott, Maynard Wenban, William Parnham and Don Overhiser.

CHEER LEADERS

No matter how much pep a student body has, it cannot be shown without leadership. This year South Haven boasts two outstanding cheer leaders in Theola Grant and Clarence Foster. Both deserve a lot of credit for the success of our athletic teams. Luckily we will have them back again next year.

SENIOR BASKETBALL TEAM

THIS year did not find as many Senior girls out for Basketball as usual. There were just 15 girls out for the practices. Because of this small number, all of the girls made the team. The temporary Captain, Bernice Couturier, with Miss Powers selected members for the regular team. The team chose Mary Gibson for their captain.

Tournament games were played between classes. The big game of the season was played at the Girls' Gym Exhibition between the Senior and Junior teams. This game proved to be a real thriller, both teams being of equal strength. The Seniors won, the final score being 15-14.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

MISS POWERS changed her program for the girls' athletics this year. Instead of opening the season, as usual, with Hockey, Soccer was substituted. This game was new to most of the girls, but proved to be very interesting. After a few weeks of practising, teams were chosen from the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors, respectively, with the following captains: Gladys Mickey, Sophomores; Marie Lauman, Juniors; and Ora Compton, Seniors. Tournament games were never played because of the sudden change in the weather.

The Basketball season brought out a large group of girls for practise. Temporary captains were chosen until teams were organized. Two teams were made up from the Sophomore girls. Also two teams for the Juniors were necessary to accommodate all the girls out for basketball. Captains for the team were as follows: Team II of the Sophomores, Anita Calkins; Team I of Sophomores, Naomi McNeal; Team II of Juniors, Jean Corrie; Team I of Juniors, Jane Merson; Seniors, Mary Gibson. Tournament games were played between the teams. Of course, the big game was played between the Juniors Team I and the Seniors at the Girls' Gym Exhibition.

In the spring, Track finished up the Athletic season for the girls. Alternately, every other year, Track and Baseball were played in the spring. Running, jumping, and baseball throwing, occupied the practices for the girls who went out for Track. As a result of the strenuous practices, a contest was held to determine the winners in the following events: 50 yard dash, quarter mile relay, high jump, broad jump, and 100 yard dash.

The girls' efforts for spending so much time and hard work on these Athletics, do not go unrewarded. Letters and numerals were awarded to girls who received a certain number of points—600 points for a letter and 450 for a numeral. Points were given for various activities other than the sports mentioned above. A health paper must be submitted before a letter or numeral will be given. To the girl who acquired the most points, a special letter was given.

GIRLS' GYM EXHIBITION

On March 15 a large crowd gathered in the boys' gymnasium to witness the Exhibition directed by Miss Powers. The program included the following:

Relays	8th and 9th Grade
Square Dances	Senior High
Gymnastics	Senior High
Bean Setting (English Folk Dance)	Senior High
Stunts and Pyramids	Selected Group from Senior High
Clog Dances	Junior High
Tap Dances	Mary Celia Myers, Virginia Bridges, Naomi McNeal

A fine exhibition was climaxed by the Junior-Senior Basketball game.

THE Dramatic Clubs sought for creation of self-expression through an understanding of the art of pantomime. Old English folk ballads and one act plays were dramatized by members of the clubs. For the benefit of the Junior High students, the clubs gave various plays in the Auditorium. The 7th Grade Dramatic Club gave a play entitled, "The Emperor's New Clothes".

"Efficiency Betty" was the play given by the members of the 8th Grade Dramatic Club. The play chosen by the 9th Grade Club was, "The Diamond Necklace".

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

OFFICERS

President	JOSEPHINE SMITH
Vice-President	THERESA ROSSELL
Secretary	KATHERINE NIELSEN
Treasurer	MARY JANE BROWN
Advisor	DOROTHY ANN PATNALES

Outstanding among the ideals of this organization is the purpose of acquainting every girl with her school, home, and community.

During the year the club engaged in such activities as: parties, hikes, distributing gifts to the unfortunate, and Christmas caroling. Credit in points was given for every recreational or industrial activity engaged in by the girls with an award at the close of the school year presented to the one who had obtained the highest number of points not only for working and playing but also for scholastic achievement.

In February a Valentine's tea for the mothers was very successfully sponsored by the club. The annual banquet, an important event of the club was held in March.

THE INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

THE Industrial Arts Club was organized for those boys who were interested in some of the different crafts, such as woodworking, metalcraft, electricity, and leathercraft. It was a place where the boys could come and do those things which they enjoyed doing as there was no required work.

The number of boys who joined the club this year was so great that it was necessary to divide them into two smaller groups. One group met in the morning at the usual club period and the other group met in the afternoon from 3:30 to 4:15 o'clock.

THE BOYS' ATHLETIC CLUB

The Boys' Athletic Club, under the direction of Mr. Jillson was organized to study the four major high school sports. It also considered training, sportsmanship and the spirit of competition.

In the fall the club took up football. After discussing the rules and different types of play, Mr. Baer took over the club hour for several periods and spoke to the members on the South Haven type of play. Basketball was taken up next. The members practiced in the gym and discussed the rules of play. In the spring track and field sports were studied. Also, the rules of competition were discussed and practiced. The track team gave demonstrations in this sport. The club then took up baseball and treated it in the same way as the other sports.

THE NATURE STUDY CLUB

OFFICERS

President	RODNEY WILKINSON
Vice-President	WARD HAMLIN

The Nature Study Club under the direction of Mr. Kerry met the first hour on Thursdays. The club was composed of people who wanted to increase their knowledge of nature. Some of the subjects studied were: sea animals, reproduction in plants, the habits of ants and other insects, some common pets and their ancestors and other such topics. Several stories about animals were read during meetings. Because of the shortness of the period the club was unable to take any field trips.

THE CHESS AND CHECKERS CLUB

OFFICERS

President	DWIGHT SUHR
Vice-President	DOMINICK TRAGNA
Secretary	JACK SIEBERT
Treasurer	RUTH MCCRIMMON

The Chess and Checkers Club, under Mr. Roger's advisorship, passed through its third successful year. The weekly meetings were occupied in solving chess puzzles, studying championship games, and working out chess and checkers problems, as well as in the playing of games between members. The annual tournament was held in the spring, when the chess champion and checkers champion were determined by a series of matches between the members. During the year, twenty-five boys and girls acquired an interest in an absorbing hobby and an increased skill in practicing it.

JOKES

MRS. FEEDORE (at telephone): "Oh, Frederick, come home quick, I got the plugs mixed some way. The radio is all covered with ice, and the electric ice box is singing, 'Show Me the Way to Go Home'."

ED BURGE: "I put a tack on teacher's chair yesterday."

FRED BURGE: "You did? I'll bet he won't sit down in a hurry again."

ED BURGE: "No! and neither will I."

MABEL H.: "I wouldn't marry you if you were the last man on earth."

JESSE: "You bet your life you wouldn't, because then I'd have my pick."

MR. LISTIAK: "Here, stop those fancy jazz flourishes; don't you know 'The Lost Chord' isn't syncopated?"

STUB REEDER: "Tain't jazz! It's hiccups."

MILDRED F.: "What are we working at Claire?"

CLAIRE G.: "At intervals."

DOCTOR: "Cecil, I don't like your heart action." (applying his stethoscope) "You've had some trouble with 'Angina Pectoris', haven't you?"

CECIL ALLERS: "That wasn't her name, Doc., but you're perfectly right."

MR. WIERENGA: "What is velocity?"

GORDON HAMMOND: "Velocity is what a fellow lets go of a bee with."

FRANCES K.: "I suppose the impact was terrible when the two street cars came together?"

LORIS D.: "It was awful. I swallowed the chewing gum of the man next to me."

DOUGLAS LARSEN: "He's got a lot of horse sense, anyway."

BILL PARNHAM: "Sort of a stable mind, eh?"

MISS MEYER: "He said I was a poem."

GEORGE KELDER: "Why, did he scan your feet?"

BABE TESKE: "So you're studying government, Roy. What kind of government—present day, ancient or what?"

ROY BOUGHTON: "I don't know yet. We've only been at it three months and my book hasn't any cover on it."

MR. SCHEIB: "Have I ever told you this one before?"

CLASS: "Yes."

MR. SCHEIB: "Good, you will probably understand it this time."

CHARLES K.: "Do you see any change in me, Johnny?"

JOHN M.: "No, why?"

CHARLES K.: "I just swallowed a dime."

MR. WENBAN: "If you want to make a hit, my son, you must strike out for yourself."

ALLEN: "You're mixed in your baseball, Dad. If you strike out you can't make a hit."

RICHARD MAGRI: "How is it you never suffer from the cold?"

STEPHEN SAWIAK: "Oh, I'm always wrapped up in my work."

Earl Gilman and Chuck Dykstra were discussing their most boasted possessions.

EARL: "You haven't much. I've got a chip off the cherry tree Washington chopped down."

CHUCK: "Bah! That's the bunk; I've got Adam's apple."

JOKES (Cont'd)

MR. MIELKE: "Why did you get seventy-one in French?"

FRED M.: "Well-er-er, you see, dad, that's par for the course."

BILL SMOOT: "Why are you limping?"

DICK ROE: "I sat down on the spur of the moment."

HENRY SZARKOWSKI (to his brother Dan): "I failed in four subjects. Prepare dad, will you?"

DAN (later): "Dad's prepared, now prepare yourself."

HAROLD SLENTZ: "I'm a little stiff from bowling."

COACH: "I don't care where you are from; get busy with that football."

H. WEINTRAUB: "Waiter, there's a dead fly in my soup. This is the second time such a thing has happened."

WAITER (Sympathetically): "Ah, poor things; it's boiling that kills them."

MISS DENNERT: "When was the revival of learning?"

WALTER HAASE: "The day before exams."

TRAFFIC COP: "Use your noodle, use your noodle."

ALBERT O.: "Where is the blame thing? I've pushed and pulled everything in the car."

BOB GORDON: "Say, could you dig me up a girl for tonight?"

GEORGE K.: "Surely, but why not take a live one?"

MERLE SHIFLET: "Did you ever read 'To a Field Mouse?'"

CLINTON RANSOM: "Why no, how do you get one to listen?"

ALYCE H.: "Say, who's manager around here, you or me?"

VINCEY P.: "Well, it's not me."

ALYCE H.: "Well, quit acting like a blamed idiot!"

FRED BURGE: "Did you see how my voice filled the room last night?"

SAM KURLANDSKY: "Yes, in fact, I noticed several people get out to make room for it."

WILBUR AULIE: "Do you know where shingles were first used?"

WESLEY HENRY: "I'd rather not tell."

E. LARSEN: "Did you enjoy yourself when you were a Junior in High School?"

CHUCK HEWSON: "Did I? Why those were the happiest years of my life."

MISS SCHNOOBERGER: "What three words are most used in the English language."

BERNICE C.: "I don't know."

MISS S.: "Correct."

SAM K.: "Why do you think Caesar was stabbed by a woman?"

JACK L.: "Well, because when he was stabbed he cried out: 'You brutess!'"

GLADYS G.: "I see they're washing cars downtown for a dollar."

MARIAN STIEVE: "Yes, and dunking Austins for a quarter."

HELEN WILLIAMS: "That's a nice tie you have."

CHUCK HEWSON: "It isn't mine. It's my dad's."

HELEN: "Well your father has good taste."

CHUCK: "Thanks, I gave it to him for Christmas."

HERE AND THERE

The Lord hates a quitter
But he doesn't hate him, son,
When the quitter's quitting something that
He shouldn't have begun.

Sing a song o' six pence (a nickel would do);
Four and twenty blackbirds (or starlings, just as true)—
These here latter critters might com-
pose a nifty pie,
But now-a-days there's nothin' much
the coin we've named will buy!

"Mr. B. Fatte says that beef fat makes a person be fat."

"Well, that's nothing to beef at."

"The ending 'let'," says E. Gilman,
"must mean little. For little leaf, we say leaflet; for little cloud, we say cloudlet. I wonder what Shakespeare was thinking of when he named his chief character Hamlet."

One of the modern novelists, referring to his hero said:

"His countenance fell
His voice broke
His heart sank
His hair rose
His eyes blazed
His words burned
His blood froze."

And yet he pulled himself together
and won his heroine.

It's a wonderful thing for the woman,
The popular permanent wave.
And now it's up to some struggling inventor
To get out a permanent shave.

April is the laziest month because everyone is tired after a March of 31 days.

Some things may change, but we still maintain that writing paper is stationery.

A match has a head but no face.
A watch has a face but no head.
A river has a mouth but no tongue.
A wagon has a tongue but no mouth.
An umbrella has ribs but no trunk.
A tree has a trunk but no ribs.
A clock has hands but no arms.
The sea has arms but no hands.
The rooster has a comb but no hair.
A rabbit has hair but no comb,
Odd, isn't it?
